Transport News Announce the Winners of the 2017 Logistics, Warehouse & Supply Chain Awards

June 2017 – Transport News Magazine have announced the winners of the 2017 Logistics, Warehouse & Supply Chain Awards.

Within the transport industry, communication between networks is key in the planning, implementation and coordination of the business or other operations. The network that runs between a company and its suppliers to produce and distribute a specific product efficiently is essential to this industry. These different factors, executed by the companies, firms and individuals of these dynamic sectors, is what forms the backbone of the transport industry.

Therefore, the 2017 Logistics, Warehouse & Supply Chain Awards are designed to recognise and celebrate the achievements made by companies, teams and individuals due to their tireless efforts and dedication to their work. On a daily basis they work to ensure that the communication between a company and the supplier is strong, and efficient.

Steve Simpson, Awards Coordinator commented: "Supply chains keep the corporate world moving, and therefore this often overlooked market plays a vital part in the global business landscape. As such it has been a true honour to be able to showcase the hard work and dedication of these exceptional firms, and the individuals behind them, and I would just like to wish them the very best of luck for the future."

Transport News prides itself on the validity of its awards and winners. The awards are given solely on merit and are awarded to commend those most deserving for their ingenuity and hard work, distinguishing them from their competitors and proving them worthy of recognition.
